

Dear Student,

The Late Registration period has ended for the current term. Please contact your academic and financial aid advisors to see if any classes offered during other sessions will fulfill requirements for your degree and/or are eligible for financial aid.

If you wish to register for classes during those terms, please login to your myCampus account and register via Self Service. If you need any assistance, please contact our office using the information below.

Thank you.